FARSIGHT INSTITUTE — VERIFIED PERFORMANCE TRANSCRIPT

Farsight Institute — Professional Education Division
Verified Academic and Operational Record

STUDENT IDENTIFICATION

Name: Intysam Goldsmith
Training Start Date: August 2020
Instruction Start Date: April 2022
Students Taught: Approximately 62
Primary Methodology: Scientific Remote Viewing (SRV)

CREDENTIALS AWARDED

- Bachelor of Remote Viewing Studies (BRVS)
- Master of Applied Remote Viewing & Instruction (MARVI)

Award Basis: Documented operational performance, protocol adherence, analytical output, and instructional contribution.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Bachelor of Remote Viewing Studies (BRVS)

Training Period: August 2020 – May 2023

The Bachelor program establishes foundational competence in Scientific Remote Viewing (SRV), including protocol discipline, ideogram acquisition, stage progression, and controlled target engagement.

Core Training Components:

- SRV protocol execution
- Signal acquisition and decoding
- Multi-stage session development
- Forecasting series participation
- Supervised session review

Master of Applied Remote Viewing & Instruction (MARVI)

Training Period: April 2023 – Present

The Master program certifies advanced operational capability, including multi-target investigations, forecasting analysis, cross-session synthesis, instructional leadership, and professional media production.

Advanced Training Components:

- Multi-part investigative targets
- Pattern recognition across sessions
- Analytical synthesis and reporting
- Instruction and mentoring
- Curriculum development
- Professional media production and public-facing communication

COMPETENCY PROFILE

The following competencies are derived from longitudinal evaluation of documented operational sessions.

Competency Area	Assessed Level
SRV Protocol Execution	Expert
Ideogram & Signal Acquisition	Advanced
Stage Progression Discipline	Expert
Operational Target Viewing	Expert
Forecast Modeling	Expert
Multi-Target Investigation	Expert
Cross-Session Pattern Recognition	Expert
Analytical Synthesis	Expert
Instruction and Mentorship	Expert
Curriculum Development	Advanced
Media Production & Public Communication	Advanced

QUANTITATIVE PERFORMANCE SUMMARY

- Total Documented Sessions: 223
- Training Duration: Multi-year (2020–Present)
- Operational Target Work: Extensive
- Forecast Series Participation: Sustained across multiple years
- Instructional Activity: ~62 students trained

This record reflects repeated, protocol-controlled performance across diverse target categories.

SESSION PORTFOLIO OVERVIEW

The student’s documented work includes:

- Operational remote viewing sessions
- Forecasting series (short- and long-range)
- Investigative and historical targets
- Multi-part analytical targets
- Cross-session comparative analysis

All sessions were conducted under structured protocol conditions and are archived for independent review.

PROFESSIONAL MEDIA PRODUCTION

Identified Flying Objects — Producer and Host

Intysam Goldsmith produced and hosted this Farsight Institute program, overseeing episode development and helping translate remote viewing research and analytical material into a clear, engaging format for a public audience.

- Produced episodes from concept through presentation
- Hosted on-camera discussions and guided audience-facing narratives
- Coordinated the communication of remote viewing findings and related research
- Applied analytical, educational, and media-production skills in a professional setting

This work supports RVC-620, Media Production & Intelligence Communication, and demonstrates applied competence in research translation, public education, and professional media production.

DIRECTOR VERIFICATION

This document verifies that Intysam Goldsmith has completed a multi-year program of structured training and operational work in Scientific Remote Viewing (SRV) under the Farsight Institute framework.

Her record includes 223 documented sessions conducted under controlled protocol conditions across forecasting, investigative, operational, and analytical targets. These sessions demonstrate sustained protocol adherence, signal consistency, and analytical development over time.

Beginning in April 2022, she assumed instructional responsibilities, training approximately 62 students in SRV methodology, session execution, and analytical practice. She also contributed to curriculum development and instructional design and produced and hosted the Farsight Institute program Identified Flying Objects, translating complex remote viewing material for a public audience.

Evaluation is based on documented session volume, protocol adherence, cross-session consistency, analytical output, and instructional performance.

Based on these criteria, the Farsight Institute recognizes completion of:

- Bachelor of Remote Viewing Studies

- Master of Applied Remote Viewing & Instruction
