Image/ impression:

What looked like president or some important official being led to a secure AREA LIKE A BUNKER sense of urgency. Some in MILITARY uniforms AND combat BDU cammo some in CASUAL CIVILIAN attire due to time-sudden events

ADVISORS hastily assemble AND led to secure place...

PLAYFAIR A-7

There is Activity inside A complex structure. people are working at a long table, counter or work surface. They prepare things AND other people come get them AND take them ~~to Another~~

LOCATION
A SENSE of information TRANSFER

It reminded me of like in WWII when intel people would get information and assemble it, then runners would come take the reports and distribute to other LOCATIONS IN A COMMAND CENTER
